Heuchera 'Velvet Night'

Ruby colored foliage. The leaves are what makes this plant or the color of them. The flowers are just an after thought. Prefers shade to semi shade. Does not do best in full sun this variety. Keep up the water in the warm weather.

Uses

Foliage attracts the eyes so good in a pot for the shaded area or in a fernery or under trees with shade but not too dry.

Preferred Position & Soil

Shade is necessary for this plant. Does not like the dry but also no wet feet. Great for an under planting or in a fernery area etc
